INDIAN TRAILS, PALM HARBOR, FL

Within walking distance to Palm Harbor University High School, this beautifully updated home places you in one of the most sought-after school zones in all of Pinellas County. Families actively seek out this community so their children can attend PHUHS, Palm Harbor Middle, and Sutherland Elementary â€” making this location as valuable as it is convenient.

Inside, over 2,000 square feet of light-filled living space offers both comfort and flexibility. Soaring vaulted ceilings, a neutral palette, and a stacked stone fireplace create a warm and welcoming atmosphere. The open design flows easily from the living and dining spaces to a granite-topped kitchen with wood cabinetry, stainless appliances, and an inviting breakfast nook. A true split plan ensures privacy, with the primary suite on one side and two generously sized bedrooms on the other. Sliding glass doors lead to a screened porch that spans the back of the home, overlooking a peaceful yard framed by mature landscaping â€” perfect for both relaxing evenings and weekend gatherings.

This residence has been meticulously maintained with over $100,000 in recent improvements, including major system upgrades that add peace of mind and lasting value. Pride of ownership shines through at every turn.

The home is part of the Indian Trails community, known for its quiet streets, low HOA fees, and proximity to everyday conveniences. The Pinellas Trail, charming downtown Palm Harbor, shopping, dining, and medical facilities are just minutes away. World-class Gulf beaches at Honeymoon Island and Caladesi Island State Park are only a short drive. Quick access to Tampa International Airport makes travel easy, while local cultural, recreational, and entertainment venues are close at hand. Offered at $580,000, this home is priced to sell and ready for its next chapter. Combining a prime school district, thoughtful updates, and an unbeatable location, it represents an extraordinary opportunity in the heart of Palm Harbor.
